BELL SCHEDULE
REMOTE LEARNING
BLOCK SCHEDULE
Synchronous

- Working with teacher and interactive lessons such as Zoom and O365.
ASYNCHRONOUS

WORKING INDEPENDENTLY
Student Expectations for Online Learning-Credits and Grades must be earned and is not like last spring where students could elect to keep their 3rd quarter grade.

- Follow the bell schedule and attend each class assigned each day.
- Communication is key! Use all sources of communication with your teachers.
- Students must have video on, and first and last name displayed. If this is not possible then please communicate with your teachers.
- Attendance taken daily for each period assigned.
- You may receive homework outside of the normal assigned working period of your class this can be done on your own time or during the assigned Asynchronous working time.
- Take advantage of conference period
- If you are having internet connectivity issues, then you need to let your teacher and the school know within 24 hours of missing the class or assigned work.
Conference Period

• Take advantage of this time.
• Work with teachers to make the most of it.
• Avenue to success is using this productively.
Attendance

• We are offering every opportunity to have students counted for attendance as possible
• We will update you as we continue to navigate how this process looks as a district.
