

Celebration
of the STARS

It's time to honor our employees--Celebration of the Stars is Wednesday and you are invited!

It's time for Tucson Unified's Celebration of the Stars event! We honor employees in nearly a dozen categories including teacher of the year, principal of the year, professional staff of the year and more!

We invite you to join us at Catalina High School, 3645 E. Pima Street at 5pm (refreshments and entertainment) with the show starting at 6pm. You can also watch live online at TUSD1.org and on our Facebook page!

Take a look back at last year's event here. or here.

We'll also honor all of our Campus Teachers of the Year in one place--You will want to see that in person!

Meet our latest Legacy--Dale Lopez from Roskruge

"Legacies" features district employees (or board members) who went to school at Tucson Unified.

Dale's long love for Roskruge began at the age of nine when he became a fourth-grade student there. Since then he hasn't left the school. Read more about Dale here and watch his Legacies profile!

There's still time to help Camp Cooper sustain its fantastic outdoor classroom!

Camp Cooper is holding its annual crowd-funding campaign, and you can help!

Over 130,000 students have experienced the Cooper Center's programs since teachers first started bringing their students in 1964, and each year, another 3,000 or more participants connect to their environment in new and exciting ways.

The center is powered by a groundbreaking partnership between Tucson Unified School District, which owns the facility, and the University of Arizona's College of Education, which manages the programs that Cooper facilitates.

Catch up with Joe Vega, member of UHS's #ClassOf2020

Tucson Unified School District is following students on a journey through high school that will culminate at their graduation as the Class of 2020.

This week, we check in with Joe Vega. As he completes his first year at University High School, he reflects on the large adjustment he's made from middle school, and what has influenced him to realize that he belongs at UHS. Check out this video for more!

The Class of 2020 project focuses on a diverse group of students who are encountering many new situations as they experience high school. The students will capture, catalog and chronicle these experiences, sharing them in a video series and through interviews. Find more videos here.
