Steps to Success happening Wednesday

Tucson Unified staff, the Mayor's Office and community volunteers are getting ready to knock on doors in the name of education on Wednesday as we conduct our fifth Steps to Success walk.

The Steps to Success program brings the Tucson community together to encourage students who have given up on education to come back to school. The walk takes place twice a year and began in Summer 2014. Since its inception, the walk has reached more than 500 students and brought hundreds back to school. So far about 50 have earned their high school diplomas, with more in the pipeline on the way to becoming high school graduates.

Welcome back to school!

We are so excited to bring all of our teachers and administrators back and are looking forward to seeing our students back in school starting on Thursday.

Our teachers have so much in store for their students. It is amazing to think about where we start on Thursday and how much our children will grow, change and learn by the end of the school year. What a journey we are about to begin!

To kick off the new year, we went around to some of the folks who were with us in summer to help welcome everyone back. And they have questions for you. Click the video above to find out what they would like to know. And by all means, just dance, dance, dance!

It's not too late to enroll for 2016/2017!
